

Middleby Marshall Receives 2013 Business Partners Award from Domino's Pizza India for the Eighth Consecutive Year

Elgin, IL. (January 8, 2014)- Middleby Marshall, the world leader in conveyor ovens, has been awarded the 2013 Business Partners Award from Domino's Pizza India, Ltd. This is the eighth consecutive year Middleby has received this award.

"We are thrilled to continue our great partnership with Middleby Marshall who provides excellent service and support to Domino's India every year," said Mr. Ajay Kaul, CEO of Jubilant Food Works.

Middleby Marshall has partnered with Domino's India since the first pizza store opened in New Delhi in 1996. Today, Domino's India is now the second biggest market outside the United States with 651 stores and counting.

"We are honored to receive this prestigious award for the eighth consecutive year," said Middleby Marshall President Mark Sieron. "Domino's India had a tremendous reputation for the service and quality of products they serve to their customers. We are proud to partner with them and look forward to continue this relationship into 2014."

Today, there are currently 5,000 Domino's stores outside of the United States in 70 international markets. In India, Domino's Pizza is present in 138 cities and has 67% of the pizza market and 70% of the home service. Ajay announced that India would be the biggest international market within a year going past the UK which currently has 749 stores.

Currently over 20,000 Middleby Marshall ovens are installed in Domino's restaurants around the world, cooking more than 1 million pizzas per day. For more information on Middleby Marshall visit www.middleby-marshall.com or wowoven.com.

Photo: Abhishek Azad of Middleby India(center) proudly accepts the Domino's 2012 Excellence in Partnership Award from Tarun Bhasin, COO, Jubilant Food Works (left) and Ajay Kaul, CEO, Jubilant Food Works (right)